Election Stirs Little Interest

Only 400 Votes Are Cast Tuesday

Democrats Win in Texas;
25% of Voters Fail to Vote
Constitutional Amendments

Little interest was shown in the general election Tuesday. Only 404 votes were cast in the Governor's race, while the three candidates for United States Senator polled only 884 votes.

A fourth of the voters skipped the constitutional amendments, making no choice on the questions.

Ten stalwart Republicans voted the ticket straight in Canyon, even scratching the local and district candidates who were running without opposition.

Canyon had only 242 votes cast out of a possible 1250, and the balance of the precincts voted in about the same proportion.

No attempt was made to tabulate the vote of the candidates, except the Senator and Governor. The results were:

O'Daniel 360, Lawson 20, Somerville 4.

Stevenson 392, McDowell 12.

John Tarleton amendment: For 172, against 133.

Military Instructors: For 132, against 172.

Anti Deficit: For 163, against 133.

Probate Jurisdiction: For 98, against 196.

State Office Building: For 174, against 133.

Many Men Leave For Service in the Armed Forces

This week has witnessed a very heavy drain on the manpower of Randall county as a large number have entered the armed service.

In the group going to Lubbock Friday for physical examination, the following were accepted: Clarence J. Kern, Willard Franklin Brown, Wilbur E. Leavitt, James M. Black, J. A. Fox. They returned home and will go to Ft. Sill Nov. 12. Bobby Bertram Middlebrook was accepted and went to Ft. Sill to begin his training.

Rejected were: Thurman Everett Davis, Richard Veltan Sogee, Jim Avis Kirkpatrick, Russell Lewis Steen.

Willmer Milton Pelton and Bobby Thomas Nickelson were held over for further medical examination.

Other men volunteering this week were:

Dr. R. A. Neblett left Tuesday for Lubbock to complete his physical examination for induction in the Army Medical Corps. He volunteered several months ago for foreign service. He holds the rank of Captain in the Medical Corps.

G. A. Farlow Called by Death of Brother

G. A. Farlow was called to Panhandle Sunday by the death of his brother, Arthur Hugh Farlow. He died six days after having been asphyxiated at his home. He had apparently recovered and had worked Saturday, but was taken by a blood clot on the brain as his doctor talked with him.

He has visited in Canyon often during the past year.

Surviving is a son, Gene; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Jo Segall of Albuquerque; his mother, Mrs. George E. Farlow of Panhandle; three brothers, G. A. of Canyon, Sidney of California and W. R. of Dalhart.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Higgins and daughter of Amarillo and Pvt. and Mrs. Huber Tiller of Dalhart visited with Mrs. Eva Morton Sunday.

Wife of Marine Major in Solomon Islands on Visit

Mrs. Paul J. Pontana and daughter, Susan Ann, of Coronado, Calif., are visiting her sister, Mrs. E. E. O'Donald and family this week.

Her husband, Major Paul J. Pontana, is commanding officer of a U. S. Marine fighting squadron in the Solomon Islands.

Mrs. Pontana will be remembered as the former Claire Lockwood. She plans to visit friends and relatives in Amarillo before going to Dozier, Texas to visit another sister.

Six Places Named To Register

Car Owners Must Make Out
Form 534 Before Going to Secure Gas Ration Book

Six registration places will be held in Randall county: At the Canyon grade school gymnasium; at the Registrar's office at West Texas State; at the Umbarger School; at the Connally or Park School; at the Burch School; at the Alice Landegrin School.

Citizens of Randall county living near Happy, Bushland or the Wolf school may register at these places as they did for sugar registration.

Supt. J. B. Speer announces that the Canyon Public Schools will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 12. It is urged that all citizens register on that day so school may continue on Friday. Teachers will be at the school house from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Two Classes of Nursing Will Be Started Here

Two classes in home nursing were organized yesterday afternoon at the Red Cross room. There was room for 40 persons in the two classes, and about 60 applied for the courses.

One class will be held Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 3 to 5 o'clock. The other class will meet Monday and Wednesday nights at 7:30 to 9:30.

The first class will be held next Monday night.

Mrs. John Guthrie, Jr., registered nurse and authorized Red Cross nurse, will teach these classes.

An effort is being made to organize a First Aid class for those who could not get into either of the nursing classes.

Mrs. C. A. Murray was in charge of organization and was highly pleased with the large response for the work.

STORK SPECIALS

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Breittling Oct. 29 at an Amarillo hospital.

A son was born to Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Read at Appleton, Wis. Dr. Read was a teacher in West Texas State last year. He completed his Ph. D. degree in Chicago University in September.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jasper Russell October 28. His name is Merle Leon Russell.

Bill Lockett is home from San Francisco, called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. L. D. Lockett. Mrs. Lockett is reported to be slightly improved.

AAA Elections To Be Held in 7 Communities

More representation and less long distance driving is on the way for the farm program in 1943. Randall county will be divided into seven communities for 1943 to replace the two official communities as at present.

The State committee of the AAA has ordered that committees for the 1943 year be elected before November 14.

The County Committee for Randall county has therefore ordered election meetings to be held according to the following schedule:

Community No. 1 at Canyon, Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 8 p. m.

Community No. 2 at Sunny Hill school, Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 2:30 p. m.

Community No. 3 at Jowell school, Wednesday, Nov. 11 at 2:30 p. m.

Community No. 4 at Umbarger Community House, Thursday, Nov. 12 at 8 p. m.

Community No. 5 at Highland School, Thursday, Nov. 12 at 2:30 p. m.

Community No. 6 at Zita School, Friday, Nov. 13 at 2:30 p. m.

Community No. 7 at Burch School, Wednesday, Nov. 11 at 8 p. m.

The new arrangement of Triple A communities was made on orders of the State office in order to increase the number of committees. This was thought necessary because of the rubber and gasoline situation. The official boundary for each community will be given all farmers by mail before election dates.

WAAC Seeking to Enlist Women in New Unit Service

Lieut. Rose Smothers of WAAC was here Friday interviewing young women interested in joining this organization. She will return in a few weeks and will explain to various local groups the new women's organization of the army. She took her training at Fort Des Moines.

The recruiting station at Lubbock is anxious for young women 21 to 45 to make application in WAAC. There are many places for service in this organization which offer attractive places for young women to work during the war.

Miss Zudie Bible Has Appointment

Miss Zudie Bible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bible left Tuesday for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, after receiving a civil service appointment as ground instructor. She will teach navigation.

Since September, Miss Bible has been teaching ground work in aerobatics at Dumas.

Rubber Grinder

Synthetic rubber is squeezed over a screen and through the holes of a tuber, from which it emerges like meat from a meat grinder. Here large pieces are broken up and excess water is removed.

Program for Saturday

Program Short But Interesting

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

9:00 p. m. Sadie Hawkins Dance in Burton Gymnasium. Free admission.

Will include Pageant, Football Game, Dance And Informal Party

West Texas State has welcomed her children and friends to the most unusual event of recent years—a wartime Homecoming. A restricted but nevertheless interesting program will provide entertainment for both young and old. Milton Morris is general chairman of the planning committee.

The Homecoming committee headed by Milton Morris, is largely inactive this year. The football game will be directed by the Department of Physical Education for Men. Pi Omega will guide the Sadie Hawkins—western dance, which falls on Homecoming evening. A beautiful and impressive pageant, "V for Victory" will be staged at 8 p. m. The author is Mrs. J. A. Hill, whose work already has been produced four times downstate.

Cousins Hall will not be the scene of wild confusion and merrymaking this year. Instead, an informal party will be held with Dr. Hill and Boone McClure as directors. Old-time dancing, games, motion pictures, and group singing will be featured. Special guests will be those Canyon residents who were here when the college was opened in 1910. Dr. Hill has long wished to see all of these people together on the campus.

Campus clubs and organizations will have restricted reunions and receptions. Faculty members will be in their offices from 10 to 12 o'clock to greet former students and visitors.

The football game will be perhaps the best played in West Texas this year, bringing together the Cowboys and Buffaloes. Game time will be 2:30 p. m. While the Buffaloes are hoped to lose by a wide margin, they don't believe all they read in the dope sheets. The men of Coaches Gus Miller and W. W. Nicklaus have been improving rapidly and winning consistently.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Censorship is under fire throughout the length and breadth of the nation. The loss of a plane or of several planes in the Doolittle raid on Tokyo; the sinking of our ships, which is not revealed for weeks or months; the movement of troops and munitions; the nation-wide swing of the President to visit war plants; all of these have been criticized by various groups of people throughout the nation. It is reasoned by a lot of folks that the people should be let in on every military movement, and every military loss as well as our victories. The fact that we have had so few victories, and have sustained many bad military losses is not considered by those who want to know the news as fast as it happens. Maybe there has been too strict a censorship on the nation, but the fact remains that to give out all of the news as fast as it happens would be too valuable to our enemies. It is said that a lot of Americans are tuning in on Berlin to "get the war news." That is just what Hitler wants. He wants to create suspicion among our people, and right now is doing a good job doing it. Too many Americans are so gullible that they are actually believing a lot of bunk which is coming out of Berlin. So far as censorship is concerned, what does the matter of a few days or a few weeks matter in getting out war news to the people? The people want accuracy, and certainly accurate reports cannot be flung at the public as battles are being fought. It is better that we wait a few days in order to get accurate reports than it is to be upset by inaccurate reports or matters of guesses on the part of news commentators. But the greatest service of censorship is in the need for keeping our enemies in the dark as to our military accomplishments.

Congress is determined to eliminate the poll tax in eight southern states as a prerequisite for voting. The argument is that more people will go to the polls if they are not required to pay a poll tax. The fallacy is that the largest number in Texas who fail to go to the polls are among those who have already paid their poll tax and are qualified voters. They are indifferent to the needs of going to the polls and casting an intelligent ballot. Congress took a hand in the present election, eliminating the poll tax receipt as necessary for soldiers to vote in the November election. The gesture was an idle one. Men in the service were more interested in the war than they were in voting, and very few voted in Texas. However, the headache to following the repeal of the poll tax receipt in Texas will be for the legislature to find a million dollars to go into the school fund. Those who are fighting the poll tax are blinded by maudlin sentiment that people are deprived of the right to vote. They refused to consider the future of children who will suffer because the schools are deprived of needed funds. We have always maintained that every citizen should support his government, even though it be only a poll tax. Democracy needs more intelligence in voting rather than mere numbers who are willing to go to the polls and vote their prejudices.

We still hear that a lot of people are apathetic toward the war. We hear that too many Americans are taking the war as a matter of fact. This may be true in some of the big cities; in politically controlled Washington; and around war plants; but not so in the average county of the nation. Take the situation of Randall county as an example: There are not less than a hundred local citizens devoting much of their time to war work. There are only a half dozen who are paid for their services; the balance are giving their time to this work, and are patriotically doing everything within their power to further the war effort. There is certainly no apathy on the part of these individuals. Then you may turn to the balance of the war program, and see that Randall county has carried out every single request made upon the county by the government. The people are buying the quota of war bonds; donating to every war fund which is presented; cheerfully abiding by the various and sundry regulations which are imposed by the government. If there was apathy, the people would not be so willing to carry out these duties. Furthermore, nearly 450 Randall county men are now in the various branches of the service, this touches a large percent of the home of the county. You cannot be very apathetic when your friends are in some military camp, or on some battle front.

You will recall during the campaign this summer that W. Lee O'Daniel finally said, after the first primary, that he would support the war program of President Roosevelt. O'Daniel succeeded in writing an obnoxious amendment into the 18-19 age draft bill, with the help of other isolationists. The President advised against the amendment; the War Department fought it; but O'Daniel won his first victory in Congress. By this amendment, Congress proceeds to tell the war department that it knows nothing about the training period needed for men. Why didn't O'Daniel go a little further and tell the war department where each man shall be trained; what each one shall do; how many socks shall be issued him; whether he shall have beans on Monday, and corn bread on Saturday, fish on Friday, and just what portion each man shall be fed. One thing is sure and certain: We shall lose the war if Congress is determined to oversee every detail of our fighting forces. As usual, W. Lee O'Daniel proves his consistency.

The News was interested in a letter from a fellow newspaper man the other day. He stated that he had made a trip to Washington with other citizens of his county in an attempt to land one of the new war plants. Citizens of his town were sincere in their effort to land something big. But since they did not get the plant, and were able to sit back and watch the towns with such plants, they were sincerely glad that they missed out. There are too many headaches connected with these war industries; too much mushroom growth; too much of chiseling on the part of those seeking to profit from the war; and when the war stops, as it will very suddenly some day, the big headache of deflation will follow. After all, the town which is able to keep going during the war will have the advantage of the towns which will see their war plants evaporate and their population drop over night.

Much credit for the success of the scrap iron drive has been given to the newspapers by Donald Nelson. The scrap iron drive was lagging until the newspapers took up the campaign and devoted page after page to the campaign. Every newspaper in the nation got into the fight for scrap. But newspapers were not all who were fighting for scrap. Scores of citizens in every county of the United States were likewise giving their time to the scrap drive. While the newspapers have been giving their space without stint or hope of reward to every drive proposed by the government, they are not seeking to take all of the credit. They are doing their jobs, just like all other good American citizens.

The new racket in the east is gasoline pills. A dead car is pushed up to a service station; the owner calls for water to be placed in his gas tank; he drops in a couple of pills, and starts the engine. Naturally everyone around wants to buy some of the pills, and he does a good business. However, he forgets to tell them of the partition in his General MacArthur has disclaimed all interest in politics. Maybe the political writers at Washington will discover one of these days that the people of the nation, outside of Washington, are more interested in winning the war than they are in who is going to be elected President in 1944.

There were fewer Halloween pranks in Canyon than usual this year. The kids realized that it was unpatriotic to destroy property at a time when every person must conserve what he has. The children of America know about as much about their responsibility in this war as do the older persons, and they are going about it in a splendid spirit. They are to be congratulated in their fine spirit of patriotic cooperation.

College Groups Study War Work Two Sessions

Representatives of West Texas State attended two downstate meetings during the week-end to report on the college's war efforts and

Invitation to Citizens

To the People of Canyon and Randall County:

In the summer and fall of 1910 the people of this town and county were all very proud of their achievement in successfully bidding for the location of the new West Texas State Normal College and were looking forward with deep interest and confidence to the opening, on September 20 of that year, of the new institution into which they were pouring their money. Their pride and gratification on that day have been amply justified through these thirty-two intervening years—years filled with hope, with labor, with aspiration, with learning, with sacrifice, with disappointment, with success and failure, and with much genuine progress along material, intellectual, and spiritual lines.

Today, Canyon and Randall County constitute one of the best places in the world to live. Few communities anywhere can boast of as many and as fine advantages as we have right here at home. Indeed, if every man, woman, and child living in this county would henceforth "tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth" about the place in which we live and keep on telling it long and loudly, we should soon double, treble, and quadruple our population. Any analysis of sound human wants and of the resources and advantages of our city and county will show that here hope and opportunity have met.

Throughout this third of a century West Texas State has tried to play a constructive part in the development of our common community. We have tried earnestly and honestly to promote the material, intellectual, and spiritual welfare of our individual citizens, our institutions, and our interests as a community. We are proud of the record. In spite of fire and war and drought and depression and ruthless competition, West Texas State is today a well and favorably known institution of higher learning, the quality of whose work is appreciated throughout the nation. Except for the shadows of World War II the outlook for your college was never so bright. We believe that these shadows are but temporary and that behind the clouds of hate and murder and starvation and diabolic terror there is a warm and friendly and life-giving Sun that will soon dispel the darkness and light the path again toward peace and goodwill even to the uttermost parts of the earth. When this day shall come West Texas State will enter upon a new era of enlarged and ennobled service.

In the meantime, it is your privilege and mine to get ready for the larger responsibilities that the new day will inevitably bring. This can be done through better understandings, a renewal of friendships, and an abiding faith in each other and in our community and its resources. To these ends, the college is inviting its neighbors and friends, the people of Canyon and Randall County, to join us in a social get-together at Cousins Hall Saturday night nine to twelve o'clock, November 7. We are especially anxious to honor those who were here when the college was established. We hope everyone of these who can, will accept this invitation to join in this short period of fellowship and community celebration. The newcomers, that is, those who have come since September 20, 1910, are earnestly requested to attend and help us do honor to the "old-timers." Admission will be free and a wholesome good time is promised all. Reader, this is your personal and official invitation.

Cordially yours,

suggest ways for broadening its program.

Dr. A. M. Meyer and Olin E. Hinkle attended a meeting called by John E. Hill of Amarillo, president of the board of regents. This session, held in Dallas, was attended by six college presidents, several deans, and other board members. Coordination of the state colleges' war plans was the goal of this session.

Dr. Lee Johnson and Business Manager Virgil Henson went to Austin to study the program of war training in the sciences, engineering, business, and kindred subjects.

Reports of these groups were given Dr. J. A. Hill yesterday. An expansion of the college's war activities in coming weeks is being planned.

You're likely to get shocked when you step on anybody who is a live wire.

PRICE BROOKFIELD

Brookfield Named To Play In All-Star Classic at Chicago

Another feather has been added to the cap of Price Brookfield, perhaps the greatest and best known basketball player to play before howling fans in Burton Gymnasium here at West Texas State College.

"Brookie," whose home is in Priona and who completed his last year of eligibility with the tall Buffaloes last season, has just been chosen to play on a picked team to participate in the Third Annual All-Star Basketball Classic Nov. 27 at the Chicago Stadium. Participating will be Oskosh, winner of the world's championship tournament last spring, and the team selected from the standout performers of the 1941 collegiate seniors.

The all-star squad was again chosen by an All-American Basketball Board consisting of sports writers and coaches covering every part of the U. S.

Through co-operation of the war and navy departments, players now in the services will be able to secure the necessary leave to participate in this year's cage classic.

The inauguration of the All-Star cage classic two years ago was one of the most spectacular in sport history. A crowd of nearly 22,000 established a new world's record for attendance at a basketball game.

But more about West Texas State's Price Brookfield.

Only recently has Brookfield received another recognition of his prowess on the gym floor. He was presented with an all-wool and leather jacket from Chuck Taylor for being placed on his All-American team. This red, white and blue jacket has a white All-American shield, a red ball on the shield, and "Chuck Taylor" and "All-American" in blue lettering.

During the past season "Brookie" was placed on Pic and Collier magazine's All-American teams. His second prize wrist watch was a Benrus shockproof presented by Pic. This past season at the Christmas-time Oklahoma City Invitation Tournament at which the strongest teams in the southwest were represented, Brookfield was right with his team while they were copping the championship crown and he was awarded the trophy for being the most valuable man at the tourney. The Buffs set a new tournament scoring record in their first game.

To go back to his junior college year, one needs mention the Kansas City National Intercollegiate Tournament. In ripping the net for 79 points, Brookfield set a new individual high point record, for which he received a beautiful trophy. He was also captain of the All-American team chosen at the tournament. At this tournament he received a Bulova watch.

During his junior year, 1940-41, he won signal honors for being voted by his team mates the most valuable man, making him the recipient of the Kleinschmidt trophy. This ambidextrous wizard also held the record among his team for the highest seasonal percentage on free shots. He would probably have received the same award this past season except that he was ineligible because the same man cannot receive the award two years.

He didn't slight the Buffaloes' Border Conference when he went after honors. When the All-Conference team was chosen, three West Texas State cage heroes were there, Price Brookfield, towering Charlie Halbert, and Captain Frank Stockman. A record Brookfield set last season while his team was downing the Jack Curtice-tutored Texas Mines five still stands. He scored 44 of his team's 88 points for the Conference record while the Miners were scoring 65 points. The previous record had been 36 points in a single game.

All of "Brookie's" varsity college playing was under Al Baggett, now a Captain in the Army Air Corps at Tulsa, Oklahoma. Jack Curtice was his freshman coach when the team went undefeated. His four year scoring record is 1676 points. He made 256 his freshman year, 396 his sophomore year, 492 his junior year, and climaxed this enviable achievement with 532 points in his last year of college basketball. He was high point man for every year except the second.

When the Navy gets ready for him, Brookfield will go into officer training in the V-7 Reserve. "Brookie" is 22 years old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Brookfield of Priona.

This great basketball career was begun when Price Brookfield commenced shooting at a hoop on his father's barn while in the seventh grade. He relates that he began shooting a basketball left-handed while in high school. He cut his right hand with a grubbin' hoe, put his arm in a sling, and continued with his left.

With the West Texas State Buffaloes, the team with the unchallenged title "The Tallest Basketball Team in the World," Brookfield has traveled from Chihuahua, Mexico (two engagements) to Chicago to Madison Square Garden in New York City. High spots on some of these trips included Vermillion, South Dakota, Des Moines, Iowa, Tarkio, Mo., Philadelphia's Convention Hall, Buffalo, N. Y., Kansas City, Oklahoma City and Peoria, Ill.

The 80,352,000 pounds of wool produced in Texas in 1940 was the largest wool production in the history of the state.

The Nazis must find the news from subjugated countries especially revolting.

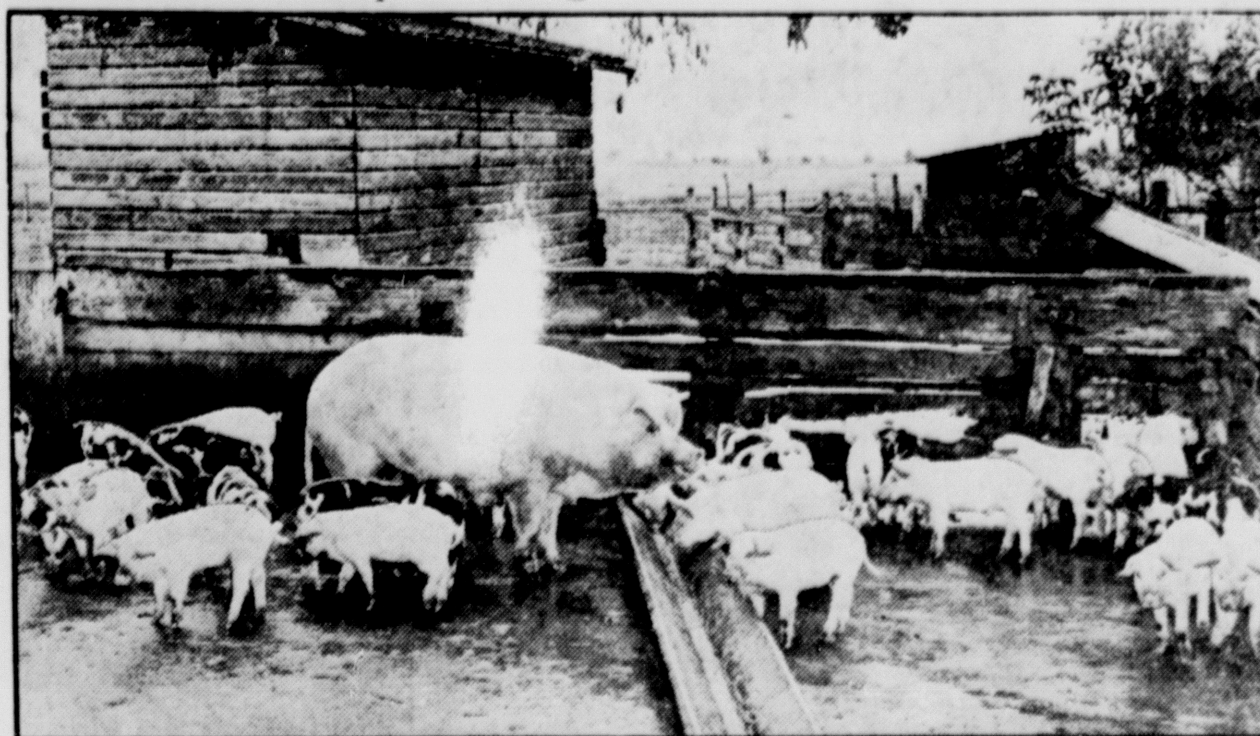

Products of gypsum made in Texas include wallboard, sheet rock, gypsum cement and gypsum plaster.

Next to oil and natural gas, sulphur is Texas' most valuable mineral resource.

Salt is the oldest and most continuously produced commercial mineral in Texas.

We'd rather listen to an echo than a gossip. An echo repeats what you really say.

Pampered Pigs Prove Profitable

Farmer John Hendriks, West Liberty, Ia., finds it pays to pamper his pigs because they're ready for market within five months instead of the usual six to eight months. His pigs never touch soil, walk in clean pens on concrete floors, have constant access to a mixture of corn, ground wheat, concentrates and oatmeal, and have nothing to do except eat and sleep. Pigs are scrubbed three times daily. Extra labor of washing floor and pigs three times daily proves profitable, he says.

During the last 46 years, Texas has produced about six and one-half billion barrels of oil.

Most men devote a lot of their spare time to trying to find a match.

WORTH'S SHOE SHOP

He gave more than 10%

—what about YOU?

...and you're not even being asked to give, but to invest in your own future and make a handsome profit besides!

THE STORY OF SCARSDALE JACK of the Flying Tigers

He had a lot to live for. Ask his father. Or ask the kids who knew him—his Scout troop—or his classmates at Rensselaer Polytechnic.

Ask his widow. Scarsdale Jack, Squadron Leader John V. Newkirk on the Flying Tigers' roster, blasted 28 Japs out of the sky before they got him.

He gave all a man can give of courage, guts, gallantry, the will to fight... and keep on fighting. Not 10%... but everything! His life.

You're being asked only to pledge 10% of your income, a dime of each dollar for War

Bonds to give all the Scarsdale Jacks in Navy blue and Army O. D. and Marine forest green the planes, machine guns, bombs, bullets, torpedoes, tanks, and ships and every other weapon they need to give the Herrenvolk, the "sons of heaven," and the road-company Romans the bellyful of steel they asked for.

These men who are fighting for your homes, your children, your future, your freedom aren't stopping at 10%.

That's all you're asked for—but why stop at 10%—if you can do better?

BUY WAR BONDS—everybody at least 10% every pay day

Now look at the selfish reasons for buying your share of WAR BONDS

War Bonds, first of all, are for winning the war. Without that what future will any of us have?

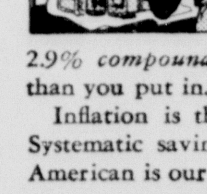

But beyond that there are many advantages that make a 10% pledge add up to solid business sense.

You get back in ten years $25 for every $18.75 you put in.

They are the direct obligation of the United States Government.

You can get back every cent you put in after sixty days if you suddenly need money.

You get a handsome interest, 2.9% compounded— $\frac{1}{2}$ more money back at maturity than you put in.

Inflation is the dreaded threat of every American. Systematic savings in War Bonds by each and every American is our major protection against inflation.

Think ahead to that day your bonds mature. It will be wonderful to have that money then, instead of frittering it away now.

When you think of what you have at stake, 10% seems almost too little. So make it more—if you can!

War Films Will Be Seen in Many Plains Schools

Nearly every Panhandle school which owns a 16mm. sound projector will become a community center for the showing of government motion pictures relating to the war effort.

Mrs. T. V. Reeves, head of the West Texas State Bureau of Public Service which will act as film distributor, estimates that at least 26 such centers will be established. Each school has been asked by the State Department of Education to appoint a community war film coordinator.

Government films, timely and many in color, will be received here and will be available for 23 weeks. West Texas State also has scores of films in its rental library, many only the cost of transportation.

The government plan is that an hour's film program be shown in each community each week. Films will concern the civilians part in wartime, the news of the production and fighting fronts, and life in South American republics.

Requests for these programs already are being received. Several have been sent from films on hand. Various Panhandle organizations also will show the films.

A report was being circulated this morning that a 60-year old man has a new tooth, but it may be false.

Oldtimers Are Asked to Party

Homecoming Event Will Honor Canyon People Who Saw W. T. Open

An informal party unique in that the honored guests will be Canyon residents who were here when the college opened in 1910 will be a feature of Homecoming.

The party will open about 9 p. m. at Cousins Hall.

Entertainment will include showings of war films and slides. West Texas State is the depository of government films which show the latest achievements on the fighting and production fronts. Oldtime games, oldtime dancing, and oldtime singing will be among the diversions. There will be plenty of time for informal visiting. Ex-students of other years will mingle with townspeople who will remember them.

A picture of the assembled oldtimers will be made during the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. J. A. Hill will be chairman of the party, assisted by Boone McClure. If weather is good, attendance is expected to be large.

Shell Geologist Praises Museum

A recent prominent visitor at the Museum was Ursel S. Armstrong, micropaleontologist of the Shell Oil Company, Long Beach, Calif.

He formerly was connected with the Scripps Institution for Oceanography at La Jolla, Calif. Specimens prepared by him there are on display at the U. S. National Museum. He also was research assistant for a year to Dr. Bruce Clark at the University of California.

For a time he was stationed in Arabia, where he assisted in locating oil structures for Shell.

While here, Mr. Armstrong highly complimented the Museum staff on the collections displayed.

Religious Emphasis Week Plans Under Way—More Student Participation

Plans are under way for Religious Emphasis Week which will begin December 2 and continue through December 5. Dr. Angie Smith of Dallas, one of the most prominent ministers of the Methodist Church in the Southwest, is to be the speaker, arrangements having been made this year by the Reverend C. C. Armstrong of the local Methodist Church.

A plan making meeting was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. T. V. Reeves as chairman. Those participating in the meeting were Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist Church; Reverend Joe Banks of the Church of Christ; Reverend Joe Findley of the First Christian Churches; Reverend C. C. Armstrong and Reverend W. J. Williamson of Methodist Churches; Dr. A. K. Knott, chairman of the advisory board of the Student Christian Association; Rosemarie Hoare, representative of the Roman Catholic Church; Jackie Wofford, the Episcopal Church; and Bill Collins, the Presbyterian Church; Ralph Owens, Mary Isabel Hanvey, Nyla Harvey, Gail Ross, Nell Spann, Elmer Hazlett, and Mabel Back from the student body.

Miss Marion Miller is chairman of a committee to select hymns which will be used during the week. Miss Pauline Brigham of the Music Department is faculty advisor to this committee. Ralph Owens was appointed chairman of the publicity committee which will try to have the entire community of Canyon and the college participate in Religious Emphasis Week. Dr. A. K. Knott, Mr. Olin E. Hinkle, and Mrs. Reeves will be faculty advisors to the committee which Mr. Owens will choose.

Small Gifts Are Received by Museum

Recent gifts to the Panhandle-Plains Museum here have included such items as a pocket sun dial, bullet molds and loaders, and Indian artifacts.

Most of these came from Sheriff M. E. Cantrell and J. D. Barker, local attorney. Earl Jones of Vigo Park gave a collection of Folsom points and arrowheads found in the southeastern part of Swisher County.

Prof. Lee Johnson has contributed 60 volumes of the Congressional Record. Family records and a number of personal items will be received under the will of the late Birdie Lee Burkhalter Liles of Lubbock, a graduate of West Texas State. Included are a number of old tinctures and a family Bible, in addition to diplomas and degrees.

While WPA funds are available for work on the addition to the Museum, a lack of laborers is delaying the resumption of construction. Meanwhile, workmen have plastered the exposed outside wall of the original unit to prevent damage in rainy weather.

Powerful Line and Fast Backs to Give Buffaloes Busy Time This Week

One of the oldest college rivalries on the West Texas plains will be resumed when the mighty Cowboys of Hardin-Simmons University meet West Texas State's Buffaloes here on Homecoming Day, November 7.

The Buffs, beaten on any statistical basis one cares to name, can relax in the assurance that they have all to gain and little to lose in the game. But the Cowboys, giant-killers of the Southwest this season, will be battling for the Border Conference title.

The Cowboys are rated as Texas' No. 2 team by many experts, while the Buffs rank about No. 7. Neither of these marks anything for the teacher to keep the boys in after school about. West Texas State has been bowling over everything but Texas Tech, but H-SU has included Southwestern Conference teams among her victims.

Mobley Is Outstanding
The Cowboys rank third in the nation in rushing statistics, and second on defense. Rudy (Doc) Mobley, sophomore halfback, ranks second on individual rushing. This Paducah flash literally took the Texas Mines defense apart before he retired to the bench to watch the reserves carry on the slaughter. Squatty George Watson and J. C. Cook, sophomore quarterback, also are dangerous ball carriers.

But many observers believe the real secret of the Cowboy machine this season is its big, bruising line—a forward wall which some fans think has not met its equal this season.

West Texas State's line, even without Co-Captain Joed Forbus and Duncan Kirkpatrick, who temporarily were in the backfield, fought the big Texas Tech forwards on even terms for half a game in the season's opener. Bolstered by these veterans and at full strength in the reserves, the Buff linemen will force the visitors to take them seriously here.

Undoubtedly the Cowboy backs will have the edge in speed and experience. But an aroused Buffalo backfield is not to be taken lightly. The Buffs now have passable punting, better than average passing, and several runners who have scored on long runs as well as short dashes. That the Buffs will not try to crack the vaunted Cowboy line is obvious; they do not have a piece of heavy artillery unless Forbus is taken from the line.

Miller Not Impressed

Coach Gus Miller, whose Texas Wesleyan teams never were known to grant an opponent much advantage, is interested mainly in convincing his team that they have a chance against the Cowboys. Yet this may be a useless campaign; the intense rivalry between the two clubs will take care of the psychology.

Gas Ration Register

senior car owners may register under the mileage rationing program now have been received for Randall County. W. J. Wooten, chairman of the Randall County War Price and Rationing Board announces:

"Automobile owners may obtain these forms at our office, or at tire inspection stations and authorized garages and filling stations," Mr. Wooten said.

In order to obtain gasoline rations for a passenger car or motorcycle not classed as a commercial vehicle, each applicant must obtain one of these blanks, Form R-534 for the "A" or "D" ration books, with the tire inspection record attached.

It is necessary for each motorist to execute this application and the inspection record, and particularly the applicant should fill in the serial numbers of the five passenger tires he wants to keep. This is the application form which the motorist must take to the registrar at the schoolhouse nearest his home on November 12, 13 or 14.

The motorist must sell all more than five passenger tires to the Government through the nearest Railway Express Agency office.

If any applicant has more than five passenger tires for his car, gasoline rations will have to be denied. On the three days an applicant should present the executed form to a registrar who will determine that it is properly executed. The passenger car owner whose form is properly filled out will receive the basic "A" book and the motorcycle a "D" book. Under the mileage plan each passenger car owner who receives the basic "A" book can count on a maximum mileage of 240 miles per month or 2,880 miles per year.

Supplemental or necessary additional gasoline rations may be allotted by the Board for certain purposes, upon proof of need. Should an applicant believe he is entitled to more than the basic "A" book, he should ask the registrar at the time he receives his basic "A" book for the supplemental ration application form, but this should not be executed at the school house. This supplemental application must be mailed or delivered to the local Board.

"After this program goes into effect on November 22, we will be rationing tires and gasoline as a unit of mileage," Mr. Wooten explained, "and for that reason the Board will have to determine the applicant's necessary or essential mileage and then give him a gasoline book for exactly that essential mileage and the kind of a tire to meet his essential needs as set forth in the regulations."

Application blanks for those who need gasoline rations for trucks and commercial vehicles also may be obtained at the local Board office or the authorized tire inspection stations. This blank, known as Form R-536, is for the "T" ration book. Mr. Wooten emphasized that the truck or commercial vehicle owner should not try to register at the school houses where passenger car owners register, but instead, should apply directly at the office of the Randall County War Price and Rationing Board and present also a Certificate of War Necessity.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hammond and daughter, Mrs. J. C. Price and children, Mrs. Jack Roberts and daughter, Mrs. Dofford Baily and daughter, Mrs. Fred Marshall and children spent Sunday at Flagg with their sister, Mrs. Rue Kuiling and family, and Mrs. Erdy Irwin, their grandmother.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wright of Holladay are visiting at the parental John Wright home. Mr. Wright is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Holladay.

Luther Archer of the U. S. Navy visited in Canyon over the weekend. He is an Ensign and deck officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McKee and family of Borger spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee.

Harter Crowns Roach Queen

Roberts Gives Program Based on Indian Theme

Bringing the Hallowe'en Carnival excitement to a climax last Friday night, Master of Ceremonies Johnny Harter crowned Lynelle Roach, junior candidate, Queen of Hallowe'en. When the queen had been escorted to her royal throne by King Charles SoRelle and the other candidates and their escorts had been seated, a surprise program was given in honor of the entire court. Miss Mary Roberts, dressed as an Indian, played and sang several classical selections.

Visitors Patronize Booths

Previous to the coronation, the gym was crowded by people visiting the various booths opened by grade and high school organizations, while in the high school gym, some of the more energetic visitors were skating.

Surpassing all previous records, the Press Club, which sponsored the queens, took in over one hundred thirty dollars. Taking second prize, the second grades, sponsoring the cakewalk, collected $17.15; while third prize was given to the ninth grade, which had a dart-throwing booth that made $16.08.

Guards Protected Cars

Net proceeds of the carnival were $258.61, which has been turned over to the Parent-Teacher Association. During the carnival, guards were stationed outside of the school to protect the cars, and no damage was done by Hallowe'en pranks.

Hosea Foster Provides Prize Money For Best Fire Prevention Themes

Proving their literary efforts were not in vain, three representatives from entrees in Hosea Foster's fire prevention contest, Lila Mae Lill, Pauline Winstead and Shirley Harrell, were awarded monetary distinction for their originality, organization and research.

Since the donor was unable to make his gifts publicly, Superintendent J. B. Speer awarded the prizes in War Stamps. $7.50 first; $5, second; and $2.50, third, to these winners Friday as students of Canyon High School gathered for assembly.

A musical group conducted by Miss Mary Roberts started the assembly rolling by singing a medley of three numbers including "When the Lights Go on Again," "Skylark" and "White Christmas." For an encore the vocalists sang, "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition."

Band will march from the high school building to the Legion Hall where it will be joined by the Legionaires.

Returning to the high school, the American Legion Color Guard will present the flag to be saluted; and the band will present a program of patriotic airs.

Dr. Harris M. Cook, Dean of Men at West Texas State College will deliver a 15-minute talk on "Education of Free Men in American Democracy."

Quintet Defeats Calves 36-46

After being defeated in a previous game by the West Texas High Calves, the Canyon Eagles came back with a victory over the Calves 46-36.

By taking a quick lead the Eagles kept a five-point margin until the half; then they stepped up to a margin ranging from ten to fifteen points, ending the game with a ten-point lead.

Starting the game for the Eagles were: Center, Wayne Wirt; guards, Calvin Sanders and Max Bosley;

There's something that freshmen have that is called "a sense of humor" when found as a characteristic of a human being.

Anyway we don't know whether or not to laugh when some witty representative of that group says something to the effect that Lana Turner must have collected a crowd when she tried on a dress in a window.

That was purely for patriotism—to keep folks happy. But something else should be done to keep the service boys happy. Maybe it would be a good idea to collect U. S. O. donations from high school students. The collections might be small in themselves, but it has been pointed out time and again what a great deal a lot of these "little bits" can do.

One subject which really shouldn't have to be pointed out is the option of laughter and private discussion in some public program.

Winstead Heads Honor Society

Clark Reads and Explains Constitution of Chapter

Under the supervision of Miss Grace Clark, the Canyon Chapter of the Senior National Honor Society held its first meeting Tuesday, October 27, and elected officers.

Those elected were: President, Polly Winstead; vice-president, Andy Walsh; and secretary, Anita Davis.

Winstead Lists Activities

Among Polly's many achievements are: Corresponding secretary of West Texas Scholastic Press Clinic; former corresponding secretary of the Canyon Chapter of Future Homemakers of Texas; yell leader of the Pep Squad, 1941; one of the leading characters in the Junior Play, "Room for Ten"; business manager for The Eagle's Tale; member of Quill and Scroll; president of her Sophomore Class; one of those chosen for last year's Junior Who's Who; and a member of the Junior and Senior Honor Societies.

Among Andy's achievements are: three-year letterman in band; Eagle's Tale reporter 1941-'42; a member of the Junior and Senior Honor Societies; and actor in last year's Junior Play, "Room for Ten."

Clark Explains Constitution

Anita, secretary, is a pianist, having played for many different organizations and activities; assistant organist for the Presbyterian Church; three-year letterman in band; delegate to the Youth Council last year; member of both honor societies; member of the Quill and Scroll; recording secretary of the Homemaking Club last year; pianist of the F. H. T. this year; and a member of the Junior Who's Who.

After election of officers, Miss Clark, sponsor, read the constitution of the Canyon chapter of the National Honor Society and explained the achievements, regulations and goals of the Society.

Graduates Present Mirror for Hall

Canyon High School sends out a warm welcoming glow with its new mirror presented by the 1943 Seniors, sponsored by Mrs. Guy B. Tabor. This mirror is 72 inches by 48 inches, and its reflection may be seen from the business district on Fourth Avenue.

Milton Sanders, assisted by the senior boys taking shop, framed and hung the mirror between the two trophy cases in the front hall last Friday afternoon.

"It's the custom each year for the Senior Class to present a 'going away' gift; however, the 1943 Seniors had secured enough money to give this gift now, so that they, too might enjoy its beauty," said Mrs. Tabor.

New teachers are becoming a habit in Canyon High, so—as long as we will eventually know them regardless, let us introduce you to Mrs. C. E. McDonald, commercial teacher, who originally hails from Wichita, Kansas, and comes to Canyon from Fort Sumner, New Mexico via Amarillo.

Now let's unroll a short script of time and see how her high school days compare with ours. Having graduated with a small class of 600 seniors at Wichita's City Auditorium, Mrs. McDonald said, "All I did was attend school."

Basketball and football were the sports, but she says there was nothing like the Parent-Teachers Association's Hallowe'en Carnival sponsored in Wichita High where her favorite subject was art. This student was not typical, but an exception—she was never into any kind of mischief, although her black hair and green eyes would be damaging evidence if anyone were to try to prove the above fact.

McDonald Attends Four Colleges

Beginning her varied college career in Wichita University, Mrs. McDonald became a member honorary dramatics sorority; was president of the Tri Sigma, an educational sorority; and attended the national meeting in Santa Fe, New Mexico from Kansas State Teachers College. Also she was a member of the Pi Kappa Delta, an honorary forensic fraternity at Emporia, Kansas.

Finally Mrs. McDonald graduated from West Texas State College with a Bachelor of Science degree in education with a permanent certificate, and two minors, English and business administration. Besides having attended four colleges, the Canyon High School commercial teacher attended the American Business College in Wichita, and spent her leisure time in the business schools in Amarillo and attended shorthand classes at W. T. S. C.

After all this education, Mrs. McDonald declares she would major in mathematics and physics if her school days were to be done again.

Designs Own Clothes

Although she did not develop her talent in art in school, this gifted teacher practices it as a hobby, particularly in "designing her own clothes," she admitted modestly; and she never misses an art exhibit if she can help it.

Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon rank first as her personal box office heroes, but she can not decide whether "Mrs. Miniver" or "How Green Was My Valley" was the better picture.

Chocolate pie appears foremost in the recipe collection Mrs. McDonald has acquired as another hobby.

According to a publisher, only a person who has suffered can write a modern novel. Read a modern novel, and then you can write one.

Prexy Woods Is Student Choice

Robert Avenit Will Direct Fire and Air Precautions

By a final ratification of the student body of Canyon High School and a formal acceptance of oath of office, Dick Woods assumed the title of Student-Faculty Congress President Friday morning in assembly when Superintendent J. B. Speer administered the oath of office. This election terminated a week of campaigning that also resulted in the selection of Robert Avenit as fire and air raid chief.

Woods Becomes President

According to the final tally from the polls, Martha Jean Dowd lead the other candidates for the presidential office; but because her present major office as assistant editor of the Eagle's Tale, she resigned as Student-Faculty Congress leader. Dick was selected for vice-president; therefore, according to the congress constitution, he automatically assumed the higher office after it was vacated.

A last year's Congress vice-president, Dick is distinguished by having played in the Eagle Band four years, having lettered for two years in football and for having taken part in 1940-'41 intramural basketball when he was voted the most valuable member of his class team. Titled as Freshman Class President and Junior Play actor, he is also a member of both the Junior and Senior Honor Societies.

Avenit Proves Athletically Inclined

Because of his sports interests, Robert is outstanding for his athletic achievements. For two of the four years of his football playing, he has lettered. Boxing and track also appeal to this school fire and air raid chief.

"We are indeed fortunate to have such efficient leaders as this year's officers and after the next meeting of the Congress, a succeeding vice-president will be chosen," concluded Mr. Speer.

Shop Boys Learn Equipment Care

Actions of the Future Farmers of America have varied from beginning projects to figuring the bills for materials.

In the agriculture classes, book-keeping discussions concern single entry and double entry. "Bookkeeping is a great help in figuring income taxes," said Milton Morris, instructor.

Having scrapped several combines for a local firm, the F. F. A. boys have been stressing the gathering of scrap for the salvage program.

Care of tools has been a main study of the farm shop boys. Tools of the shop have recently been sharpened. Some of the boys have been overhauling motors from home, while others have repaired cars.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

ANGER IN THE HOME

THE whole breed of domestic contagious and infectious diseases will disappear in the years to come as the lessons of cleanliness come to be learned; not only the lesson of cleanliness of the home, but also personal cleanliness, the cleanliness that demands the daily washing with soap and water, the cleanliness that destroys germs, removes the substances in which they breed, and disinfects and makes healthy all human surroundings.

It has long been an established fact that one of the most dangerous agents in the transfer of bacteria is the human hand with its five fingers.

Bufs Trample New Mexico Aggies at Las Cruces, 23-0

Coach Saves Key Men for Game Saturday With Hardin-Simmons

Aggies Present Defense Affording Opportunities For Tricky Offense

The West Texas State Buffaloes sewed a Border Conference victory up in the first five minutes of play against the New Mexico Aggies at Las Cruces Saturday afternoon and took it easy the remainder of the game to win 23 to 0.

The Buffaloes racked up 9 points on a safety and a touchdown in the first five minutes of the game and went ahead to score in all but the final period under the leadership of right halfback Ed Castleberry and his alternate Doyle Ford.

The Aggies threatened four times but three pass interceptions and an incompleteness in the end zone halted their drives.

The Buffaloes apparently never went at little more than half way strength. Coach Gus Miller played all of his squad except three key men whom he was saving for the Homecoming game Saturday. Mack Winters, veteran blocking back, J. P. McMahan and big Leslie Curb, end, did not enter the game. All three are ordinarily starters.

The Aggies used a defense which would have been a snap for some of the West Texas finesse. They played their halfbacks only five yards behind the line of scrimmage with the safety only five yards farther back. This provided excellent opportunities for tricky passes. The Buffs used principally end runs, off tackle and center plunges and simple pass plays.

Tackle C. M. Teague blocked an Aggie punt by end Rex Dempsey before the game was two minutes old to score the Buffaloes' safety.

Castleberry took over than, sweeping alternate Aggie ends in four plays in a 60-yard march to the goal. Johnny Thomas converted with a placement.

The second touchdown was scored by Willard Hedges who rambled 62 yards on a cutback off right tackle midway in the next quarter and Rufus Bradford place kicked the extra point.

Early in the third period, the Buffaloes marched 60 yards to a score in eight plays that netted three first downs. Andy Anderson, Duncan Kirkpatrick, Leroy Reeves and Curtis Kelley, fullback, carried the mail with Reeves crossing the Aggie goal on a 12-yard sprint around end. J. W. Anderson's placement was good.

Two Aggie threats ended on the 16, but a Buff fumble while attempting to run the ball out and W. T. Corn, tackle, recovered giving the Aggies a third chance from the 11. The next play was a long pass—incomplete in the end zone.

The final threat was halted by Emmer, who intercepted a pass, giving the Buffs the ball on the 38 from where they engineered their final touchdown drive.

Emmer played the outstanding defensive ball game for the Buffaloes with Walter Word who substituted for him also doing remarkable work. Virgil Kelley, crushing fullback, was responsible for many of the Buffs' gains through the Aggie line.

Interception of five passes spelled defeat for the Aggies. Dempsey's

Punt Blocker Extraordinary

Here is the reason why some of the hot plays cooked up by teams whom the Buffs have played, have failed. C. M. Teague, 200-lb. tackle from Tulia, has turned in a bang up job of linesman. Probably the only reason Teague has been idle for some quarters in recent games is the fact that he fills the position of Captain. Johnny Thomas when Johnny is not there. Teague is a senior this year, getting his first letter in football last year.

punts partly offset Aggie weakness. The Buffs led in first downs, 14 to 9.

Prof. Duflot Says Old Economic Order on Way Out

Prof. J. L. Duflot, head of the department of sociology, was guest speaker at the Senior High School Parent Teacher Association meeting in Plainview last Thursday evening.

"The Trend of Our Economic and Political System" was his subject. Laissez-faire is on its deathbed in the United States, according to Mr. Duflot. "I don't know what future historians will name this decade but I venture to take time by the forelock and call it the passing of laissez-faire, the trend away from laissez-faire economy to that of expanding government economy," he said.

Professor Duflot discussed what is taking place in the social order and described "some of the trends of events through which we are passing, leading away from capitalistic economy toward a government controlled economy."

"I see this departure from laissez-faire as no disaster but as an opportunity for America to advance toward a real victory, a more democratic planned society and promise of the realization of the real values in the lives of people," he declared. "Democracy is more than a question of economy; it is the development of a nation of free men."

what will your new car be like?

GREAT CHANGES in automobiles are certain after the war. What will they be?

Will your post-war car be teardrop in shape? ... Will it have sealed plastic windows to preserve air-conditioned interior temperature? ... Have "shiftless" transmission? ... Longer-lasting synthetic rubber tires? ... A smaller engine using higher octane gasoline to deliver greatly increased horsepower per pound of weight?

The answer to the first of these questions is still uncertain. But to the two final queries, synthetic tires and engine power, Phillips Petroleum Company can suggest affirmative replies.

Phillips is prepared for the coming great improvements in personal transportation, because long before Pearl Harbor, Phillips scientists were engaged in never-ending study, research, experiment, exploring the limitless possibilities of petroleum chemistry.

Slowly but surely, there emerged new processes, new products, new benefits. Even before the war, much of this purposeful knowledge was channeled into the national defense effort. Now, all of it has been "enlisted" for the duration.

Phillips vast resources of raw materials and Phillips knowledge have made the company one of the largest suppliers of 100 octane aviation gasoline to the Army Air Corps, the Navy, and the United Nations' air forces; have made the company an important participant in the U. S. synthetic rubber program.

As a user of Phillips 66 Poly Gas and Phillips 66 Motor Oil, you surely share with us the pride that comes of knowing that Phillips is doing its part in the Nation's victory effort.

Big Pageant Is Prepared Here

Story of Democracy at War Is Theme—Author Is Mrs. J. A. Hill

The big task of making costumes and scenery for a patriotic pageant, "V for Victory," is one of the activities this week in preparation for West Texas State's annual Homecoming on Saturday, November 7.

This pageant, written by Mrs. J. A. Hill, has been staged four times down state but has never been seen in Canyon. Forty-four characters will be used in the production. Dr. Seth Fessenden will direct the pageant, assisted by Miss Ruth Stapleton. The production staff also includes Mrs. A. M. Meyer, Miss Ada V. Clark, Mrs. Frances Bright, Miss Margaret Barrett, and Prof. John Gillis, with Mrs. Hill as advisor.

Student organizations will furnish the personnel of the cast. As produced professionally, the pageant has included as many as 250 characters.

Dr. A. Kirk Knott will be the narrator. The pageant includes two episodes. The first depicts a changing world, contrasting the Axis countries with the liberty-loving nations. The second episode shows what America is doing in the defense of democracy. Countries of the world are represented by costumed individuals and groups.

During the parade of nations to the Axis banner, Uncle Sam disdains to heed the command, moves closer to Peace and Liberty. The course of Uncle Sam in the war is then illustrated. Principles of freedom are enunciated as the characters move in their various orbits. The spirit of conflict becomes clear and impressive as the arts of magic, phantomime, and narration are combined. The pageant will begin at 8 p. m. Saturday in the main auditorium. Shadow owes its birth to light. —Gray.

Don't forget that the easy way to spot the genuine article is to look for the name, Phillips 66 Motor Oil. Do that whenever you make either the seasonal or regular 1,000-mile oil change.

College Males Need Training

Coach Nicklaus Says Men Poorly Developed in Arms, Shoulders; Health Poor

That West Texas State men should be physically fit is not just the motto of the Physical Education Department; it is fast becoming a reality.

Especially in the men's classes has the work been geared up to meet the demands of the war, although the girls are feeling the effects also.

Assistant Coach W. W. Nicklaus has observed the boys closely in his classes and has these things to say:

"Most of the boys need building up because of a lack of proper training in high school. Usually their general health is bad, many of them not feeling like taking part in the work because of headaches, colds, and other minor ailments. A class in physical education should also be a health course, teaching the boys how to avoid these small, troublesome ailments. Principally the men are weak in the arms and shoulders, while their legs are better developed. Every boy should be taught how to rest properly at night and how, what, and when to eat. The old idea that only members of the football or basketball team are athletes is all wrong. There are hundreds of other boys, all athletes, in school, and they should be trained. At the present time only 75 per cent of the men are taking physical training and it should be 100 per cent."

Coach Nicklaus asks the boys to do nothing he won't do himself.

It is hard to tell whether the rings on the noses of some of our friends are caused by wearing glasses or drinking from fruit jars.

Nature makes mistakes but she never arranges the bloom of youth close to the nose on one cheek and near the ear on the other.

There was a time when I could gad around and catch up with my work too. Now I scarcely find time to gad around.

There are known to exist under the surface of Texas some sixty or seventy-five minerals that are of commercial value.

Golden Becomes College Head

Eastern New Mexico College Installs 1925 Graduate on Saturday

More than fifty educational institutions were represented Saturday when Floyd Dewey Golden, one of West Texas State's distinguished former students, was installed as president of Eastern New Mexico College of Portales.

Dr. J. A. Hill was spokesman for the out-of-state colleges. Also present were Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley and Dr. and Mrs. A. Kirk Knott.

Mr. Golden—and Mrs. Golden also—were graduated in 1925. He was for a time superintendent at Miami, then took a similar position in Portales. He was active in the establishment of Eastern New Mexico College and became its dean. For about a year he was acting president.

Mr. Golden was a campus leader and star athlete. Following his graduation here, he obtained the M. A. degree at Colorado College of Education and studied also at Columbia University. He is a popular figure in New Mexico, where he is known as an educator, civic leader, and administrator. His address, "Education and the New Order," was a feature of the installation ceremonies.

All America Knows
Budweiser...
but Few Know This

THE STORY OF BREAD

may well be called The Story of Civilization

Bread, the most venerable of prepared foods, has helped man, and man in turn has bettered the quality of his staff of life.

YEAST is the life of bread... and the story of yeast is the story of scientific research, uniform quality, mammoth production, modern refrigeration... and daily delivery to bakers in every city, town and village throughout the land... even by boat, by sled and by plane when other transportation is interrupted by floods and blizzards.

Anheuser-Busch is one of America's biggest sources of baker's yeast.

Year after year, we have striven with research and resources to better the methods and facilities for brewing Budweiser. To do this, a laboratory specializing in fermentation and nutrition was necessary. Discoveries made in the laboratory and in the plant have led to the development of products contributing to human necessity and progress. Some of these products would appear to have only a remote relationship to brewing, yet, they are the result of scientific research into many allied fields.

Endless research in making the world's leading beer has led to other products

VITAMINS, B COMPLEX—For manufacturers of pharmaceutical and food products. Our plant is one of the world's largest sources.

VITAMIN D—Anheuser-Busch produces enough of the basic material for Vitamin D to supply the entire American market.

CORN SYRUP—many millions of pounds annually for America's candy industry.

SYRUPS—for food, table and confectionary uses and special syrups for medicinal purposes.

STARCH—for food, textile, paper and other industries—millions of pounds annually.

VITAMINS FOR LIVESTOCK—We are America's biggest supplier of yeast vitamins used to fortify animal feeds.

REFRIGERATING EQUIPMENT—for retailers of frozen foods and ice cream the country over. This division is now working all-out on glider wing and fuselage assemblies for our Armed Forces.

DIESEL ENGINES—Adolphus Busch, founder of Anheuser-Busch, acquired the first rights to manufacture this revolutionary engine in America and thus started our great Diesel industry on its way.

Buffaloes Face Unbeaten Team

Fans Will See Lively Game As Rivals Scramble

Hardin-Simmons and Homecoming!

These two words are practically synonymous at West Texas State and this year will be no exception as Coach "Gus" Miller pits his rapidly improving Buffaloes against their arch rivals the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys at 2:30 Saturday afternoon on the home field.

An added attraction will be the crowning of Miss Avanelle Hill, junior from Perryton, as Buffalo Football Queen.

The boys from Abilene come to Canyon with the most impressive record in the Border Conference, having beaten Baylor 13-6, North Texas 34-0, S. M. U. 7-6 and Texas Mines 39-7. A line averaging 193 pounds and a backfield four pounds under that makes the Cowboys a powerful machine. W. T. will be only slightly outweighed in the line but the backfield will lose about 15 pounds to the man. The Cowboy line is especially fast and hard charging.

Prescott, 202 pound left end and captain, is a rugged lad who receives passes from anywhere, blocks with viciousness, and is an outstanding place and drop kicker.

Hardin-Simmons boasts a candidate for All-American honors in Mobley, 160 pound left half, who two weeks ago made 170 yards from scrimmage against Texas Mines, scoring three touchdowns. During the first four games he made 604 yards running in addition to showing some fancy for his team mates.

Coach Miller expects all his boys to be in top physical condition. Substitutions probably will be many because reserves in both line and backfield have made much improvement.

The probable starting line-up:

West Texas	Hardin-Simmons
LE—Curb	Prescott (c)
LT—Thomas (c)	Tomlinson
LG—Ramsey	Bennett
C—White	Callah
RC—Forbus (c)	Marmalejo
RT—Love	Springle
RE—Emler	Brown
QB—Winter	Johnson
LH—Castleberry	Mobley
RH—J. Anderson	Cook
FB—McMahan	Wilson

Seal or Sea Lion?

Do this mama and her baby in the Central Park Zoo belong to the seal or sea lion family? Difference is in the shape of the head, body, and tail, as well as in the flippers. Sea lions have tougher beards. Yes, these specimens are sea lions.
